

Here are McTafs 'chicken scratchings from the run....

In 41-degree heat, bus stop set a run in the hilliest suburbs in Adelaide. I know from experience that Bus Stop sets a brilliant run - Ed

We only lost 10 percent of the pack to heat stroke. These were deemed acceptable losses.

Elf was not allowed to give the anchor away as he had conducted some illegal modifications upon it. The bugger had painted it red.

This was salamis last run, soon to return to Switzerland. (aka Fritz - Ed)
