Run Details	Run Report – The Church Crouch Road Golden Grove Hare – Bearded Clam		Unfair and subjective Run Score
4 March 2024 Run 2529	We knew it was going to be a tough gig when we counted up the runners and the total was only four! A quick briefing from the hare confirmed the good news that there would be a drink stop but also the bad news that there would be plenty of hills. As we arrived at the first check behind the Stables, the hare certainly made his intentions clear! After a couple of long false trails we were soon heading up into Greenwith for much more of the same. The checks were great and required all members of the gang of four to get out and find trail. Frustratingly, we encountered the bloody walkers who had been treated to an abridged version of the run, at a couple of points on the run, cheerfully led by the hare himself. About three quarters of the way through the run, Elf managed to make a straightforward check incredibly difficult and luckily was rescued by the other three athletes. According to Elf, up to this point he was almost at the point of becoming a “smart hasher” having finally worked out the devious check-setting strategies of the Bearded One! At this point, we pointed out to Elf that “smart hasher” was definitely an oxymoron, and that it would take an equally deranged mind to appreciate the inner workings of our deranged psychopathic hare. Back on trail and we were soon passing the Greenwith Primary School, after which, surprise, surprise, we encountered the drink stop in the garage of the hare’s abode. Here we were treated to generous quantities of XXXX, before embarking on the short run back to the church. Back at the church there was general agreement that it had been a bloody good run with really well-set checks. A short circle (conducted by the stand-in RA, McTaf) saw some of the worst shit charges in history, complemented by some of the worst shit singing in history, thankfully followed by some bloody terrific nosh. Many thanks to the hare for a really well set run and great nosh!		8
