17 AH3 Hashers - and I didn't listen to how many Harriettes because I was drunk , oops

I was promised a 'joint' run, but all I got was drunk!

It was a great turn out for our combined AH3 and Harriettes Christmas Pub Run.

Gravel Rash had been busy out in Port Adelaide setting trail and warning the many establishments of our impending visit.

Trail let us to many a pub where we enthusiastically sang our classic and traditional carols. Well, they are classic and traditional to Hash, but I wouldn't sing them in church.

Did I mention there was a lot of beer??

It was awesome to see so many dressed in their Christmas finery. Photos attached.

The dual circle at the Brewery was loud....and that was just the machinery. Considering the number of attendees, circle was relatively short - for AH3 standards.

Joint charges are mentioned in the charges table below.

Next week the Christmas festivities continue with the AH3 Xmas Party at ELF's magic cave.

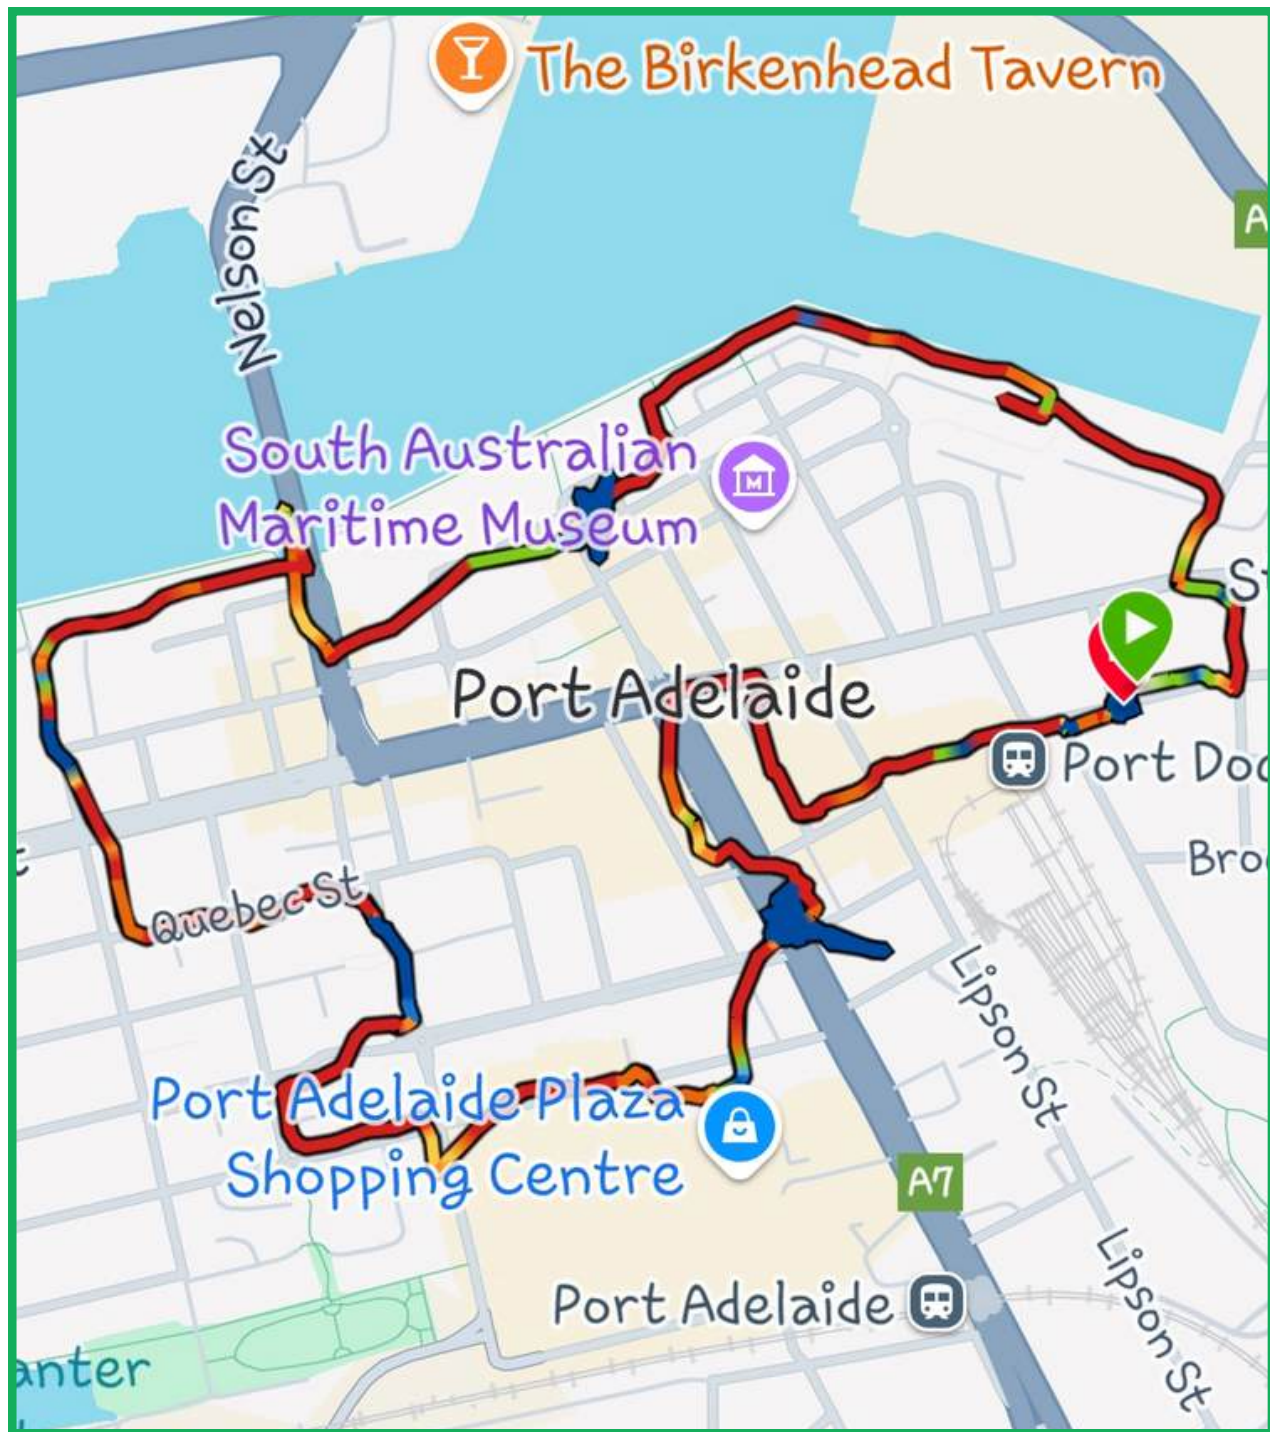

Santa's little helpers will not be wearing their usual Christmas attire. In fact, I believe they will not be wearing ANY attire.
