12 February 2024 Run 2527	With the federal government introducing new emissions standards it was time for the old, two-stroke powered Moped to check in for an upgrade. This left a gaping hole in the Hare Q which called for some serious short-term planning. In response to the need, the 45th (and perhaps the greatest) GM (of all time), was quickly on the hunt. To cut a long story short, despite the hundreds of offers to volunteer, it was decided that this run would be set by the infamous "Gyprock Gang". It is not widely known, but like Clark Kent has mysterious connections to Superman, when calls are sent out for the Gyprock Gang, Betty Boop and McTaf mysteriously appear! Inspired by the writings of the 45th (and perhaps the greatest) Hash Trash (of all time), the hares pledged that not only would they set an epic run, but they would also perform an unheard of 6 reccies - clearly eclipsing any records set the week before!! Details of these reccies are understood to have been as listed on these reccy notes (looks like Boop writing) apparently discarded at the run site:  <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Visited South Terrace parklands – confirmed that alcohol and hashers are both banned after 8pm. 2. Visited the cowshed at Oakden – confirmed that cows and hashers are now banned. Older vintage imitation four-wheel drives allowed and encouraged. 3. Visited the Two dogs park in Windsor Gardens, Saw two dogs sitting (quite still) in the park. Concluded that dogs are encouraged, and hashers are tolerated at this venue. Left a bowl of water for the 2 dogs. 4. Visited Bunnings and confirmed sausage sizzle is the core business, sell tools and hardware on the side, hashers and home handymen are tolerated 5. Roamed the streets of Windsor Gardens and found plenty of discarded gyprock. Found a great spot for a drink stop. 6. Went back to the park to check on the two dogs who had stubbornly refused to drink the water. Thinking of calling the RSPCA. May seek advice from Dr Dicwad on how to get two dogs to drink. 	8

With the temperatures on the day approaching 40 degrees, we could only hope that the hares had set a sensible run, with plenty of shade, a well-marked trail and a welcome drink stop being high on the wish list.

After breaking the first couple of checks, we were soon running along North East Road, before being taken on a tour through the Bunnings under-cover car park. Another short stretch along the North East Road took us to an optional drink stop, where we enjoyed a cool refreshment before embarking down into the bowels of Windsor Gardens.

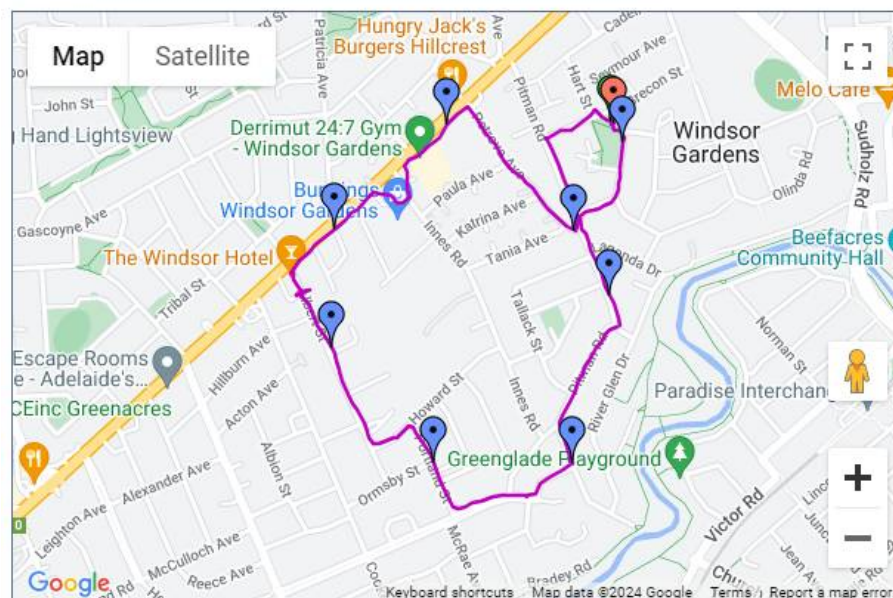

As we turned left towards home, the more observant among us noticed the hares Landcruiser (high emissions model) hiding in plain sight in the middle of the road. Amazingly, Olive Oil almost ran into the Landcruiser not noticing McTaf menacingly threatening the oncoming runners with his unknown concoction.

After a welcome refreshment stop, we were soon making our way back to the park where those two fucking stubborn dogs had still refused to drink any water despite the bloody heat.

With the front runners back well within the hour, we were all very grateful for a relatively short, sensible, well-set run.

With our 45th RA back in action, we managed to welcome a virgin visitor, Vinegar Tits, as well as back from the long-term dead Cougars. After the circle we were treated to an extensive buffet of roast chicken and salad sandwiches and rolls, nicely capped off with Tim Tams.
