Run Details	Run Report – Betty Boop and McTaf’s Joint Hares – Beety Boop and McTaf 19 or 26 Runners		Unfair and subjective Run Score
25 March 2024 Run 2533	With a lot of the pack away watching the final of the Australian Idol we were reduced to 19 athletes, lucky we had some visiting Poms (Mouthwash, Scrumpy, and JimJams) to make up the shortfall, thanks for coming along. The hare proceeded to tell us about the run and how it was set in chalk and arras and stuff and something about not losing the visitors. After ignoring all instructions, we set off down Brunswick Tce until we found a check on Grove way which temporarily fucked us up and also allowed Buddha to catch up. It wasn’t long before we found one of many (lots, heaps, shit loads) two way checks. The front running bastards did their jobs well busting the two way checks (wasn’t that hard 90% just went straight on) Olive was often seen running off into the sunset, only to be called back to the On trail. The run continued to take in the sights of Wynn Vale, and as the sun was just setting one of the locals kindly abused the running pack for being noisy “why can’t you exercise quietly ya farken arsholes” or something to that effect, Buddha politely replied “sleeping, the sun hasn’t even set buddy”. The amused pack continued on to join the walkers at the drink stop at Wynn Vale dam where we downed some Port and Lemonade concoctions and scoffed some chips. After talking shit we made our way back to the runsite conveniently over the hour. A jellybean circle was eventually called where the Standin RA (the self-proclaimed greatest 45th GM of this year) dished out the usual punishments. With the circle finally over and the Necrophiliac Song murdered we moved onto the nosh of Lasagne and Garlic Bread followed by Bunny Chocolates. Thanks Betty Boop and McTaf for a great evening.	8
